HUMOR

IN CONCERT

Extreme joviality in theatre- and concert halls from the Netherlands, Concertgebouw Amsterdam, to the Catalan high-mountain, Festival de theatre Esterrri d'Aneu, Pyrenees. Welcome to the superb and wonderfully hilarious world of the concert-acrobats

GOGOL & MÄX

What these masterly skilful comedians present on the European stages is utterly breathtaking. Two hours filled to the rim with laughter and amazement at the acrobatic and musical virtuosity, at the incredible multitude of instruments played.

At the finale grande, when the piano-playing ballerina in his pink tutu makes his balance-acting on filigree carbon-steel, even Bach's bust enthroned on top of the piano laughs himself into stitches.
